a connoisseur

The friendship of the Lanz and Thomson families stretches back for 30 years, although it was the two (future) wives who first became friends through Rotary International in the 1970s. In their words 'Brian and Thomas came on the scene over the next few years, sharing stories and bottles of wine'. One thing led to another, and in 1998 they began the establishment of the 15-ha Outlook Vineyard and the 16.5-ha Moolanda Vineyard, each planted predominantly to shiraz, each with around 2 ha of mourvedre and viognier, splitting only with grenache (1.44 ha) on Outlook and cabernet (3.25 ha) on Moolanda. The lion's share of the grapes is sold.
